

Peer Assistance Services

Harold Bober Memorial Scholarship Application For a Pharmacist or a Student of Pharmacy to attend the University of Utah School on Alcoholism and other Drug Dependence

Harold Bober, RPh, PhD, an advocate for the pharmacy community, served on the board of the Colorado Pharmacist Recovery Network, the Peer Assistance Services Board of Directors, and was a long standing member of the faculty at the University of Colorado School of Pharmacy. Peer Assistance Services, Inc. is pleased to offer a memorial scholarship in honor of his dedication to the prevention and intervention of substance use disorders. This $1,000 scholarship is available to a pharmacist or student of pharmacy with an interest in the prevention, recognition, and treatment of alcoholism and other substance abuse.

The Utah School on Alcoholism and other Drug Dependence will be held in June in Salt Lake City, Utah. Continuing education credits (CEU) and/or university credit may be available for participation. More information may be obtained at: <http://uuhsc.utah.edu/uas>.

Your application and essay will be reviewed by a committee of Peer Assistance Services staff and members of your professional community. Recipients will be asked to discuss their experiences during Utah School with the review committee.
Thank you for your interest!
